SDG1: No poverty

1.4.2 - Does your university as a body provide financial assistance to the local community assisting the start-up of financially and socially sustainable businesses?

Alnoor University has supported financial assistance to the local community assisting the start-up of financially and socially sustainable businesses. Some examples of the financial assisting that Alnoor University provides.

In light of the great keenness of Al-Noor University College to highlight the methods available to it to provide field services to the people in its home environment, and to expand the volume of services whenever possible, it is also keen to perpetuate this positive openness to society, therefore, educational dental clinics continue to provide advisory, preventive, and therapeutic services to families in support of providing advanced stage students with experience, enhancing the experiences of their professors, and providing the treatment or medical intervention needed by those suffering from dental problems.

"In the presence of Mr. Najm Al-Jubouri, the governor of Nineveh, and in line with Al-Noor University College's commitment to nurturing creativity and embracing its talented individuals, the college participated in celebrating the outstanding students of the Talented School who achieved second place in the Zayed International Competition. The college supported the ceremony and honored the students.

The ceremony, hosted by Beitna Foundation at one of the heritage houses in Old Mosul, was attended by several directors and officials from government departments in the city, as well as a large audience."

"With the support of Al-Noor University College and its active participation, Qudurat Academy held the the first Virtual University Students Forum was held on the evening of Sunday, 3/3/2024, via the Zoom platform. The forum began with verses from the Noble Quran recited by the student Zana Ismail

a student from the Dentistry Department at Al-Noor University College. Subsequently, speeches were delivered by officials, starting with a speech by Professor Bashar Mahmoud Ali representing Al-Noor

University College, followed by a speech by Professor Mahmoud Kadawi, the director of Qudurat Academy . The time was then dedicated to lectures, including ""The Role of Iraqi Universities in Enhancing Skills and Capacities for Graduates"" by Dr. Qabas Hassan Awad, ""How to Study for Excellence"" by Dr. Naktal Abdul Hadi, a certified trainer and lecturer at Mosul University, ""Student Activities and Talent Development"" by Dr. Sahbaa Nizar Kadhem, a lecturer at Al-Noor University College and accredited international arbitrator, ""The Role of Culture in Building a Progressive Society"" by Dr. Ahmed Alaa Al-Shammari and ""Specialized Reading"" by Dr. Falah Flihan Al-Ruwaili."

In recognition of the remarkable achievement by Mosul Sports Club, which won the Iraqi First Division Football Cup and advanced to the Premier League, Al-Noor University organized a celebratory event for the team's players and staff on its campus on the afternoon of Saturday, July 27, 2024. The event began with a speech by Professor Dr. Yassin Taha Al-Hajjar, the university's president, who congratulated the city and the team on their accomplishment. He emphasized Al-Noor University's dedication to nurturing creativity and excellence. Following the speech, team members were honored for their success. It is well-known that Mosul Sports Club enjoys support from Al-Noor University, which is committed to revitalizing efforts that elevate the city's status and showcase the capabilities of its people. The university believes that nurturing talent and supporting such achievements are integral to its mission of community service, as well as to reinforcing its educational journey and success in serving the broader community.

"Sponsored by Al-Noor University College and supported for the initiative of the Minister of Higher Education and Scientific Research Dr.Naem Al-Abody, It completes its humanitarian role in the society by distributing the basket of Ramadan to thousands of poor and families in need in different areas of Mosul.

The media office in Al-Noor University College has remarked that the initiative of distributing the 'Ramadan basket will continue throughout all the days of Ramadan to cover as a great number of beneficiaries as it can."

Sponsored by the Dean of Al-Noor University College and completing its humanitarian work and Ramadan aid, Al-Noor University College has provided about 170 children with Eid clothing which is included orphans in different areas of Mosul. It is divided in to two stages to cover children's needs in different ages. Asst. Lect.
