SDG4: Quality Education

4.3.1 - Does your university as a body provide free access to educational resources for those not studying at the university, e.g. computers, library, online courses, access to lectures, etc?

Teaching living languages at Al-Noor University is one of the leading initiatives in Nineveh Governorate and Iraq as a whole. The university offers a series of language courses in English, French, German, Spanish, and Turkish, as well as Arabic for non-native speakers. These courses provide trainees with the opportunity to immerse themselves in diverse, multicultural environments.

Al-Noor University is unique in organizing this diverse series of courses, delivered by highly qualified and experienced Iraqi and international instructors, each specializing in their respective languages.

The courses will be held in the classrooms of the English Language Department at the College of Education, located on the fourth floor of the university's main building, starting Monday, July 1, 2024. Each course lasts for one month, with a total of 36 hours, conducted three days a week (three hours per day between 9:00 AM and 4:00 PM). The specific schedule for each course will be determined once the required number of participants is reached.
