SDG4: Quality Education

4.3.5 - Does your university as a body have a policy that ensures that access to these activities is accessible to all, regardless of ethnicity, religion, disability, immigration status or gender?

Alnoor University is committed to a policy against legally impermissible, arbitrary, or unreasonable discriminatory practices. All groups operating under the authority of University, including administration, faculty, student governments and programs sponsored by the University. The intent of the University's policy on nondiscrimination is to reflect fully the spirit of the law. In carrying out this Policy, the University also shall be sensitive to the existence of past and continuing societal discrimination. The campus is available for all people regardless of ethnicity, religion, disability, immigration status or gender. Alnoor University implements policies and practices that facilitate access for marginalized and underserved communities, such as indigenous peoples and individuals with disabilities. This approach to inclusive education is instrumental in breaking down the barriers that hinder equal access to learning opportunities. Alnoor University is a private educational institution that promotes inclusivity. As such, it has implemented policies to ensure equal access for individuals of all ethnicities, religions, disabilities, immigration statuses, and genders. These policies are found in the Alnoor University's Student Manual and Alnoor's Affirmative Action Programs, which aim to enhance access for disadvantaged students in compliance. These affirmations serve to empower all individuals.

Inclusivity: The University provides opportunities for all community members regardless of religion or gender.

Support for Students with Disabilities: The University offers all necessary tools and resources to ensure students with special needs can participate fully in the educational process on equal footing with their peers.
