SDG5: Gender Quality

5.6.6 - Does your university as a body have women's mentoring schemes, in which at least 10% of female students participate?

Eliminating all forms of discrimination against women and girls is not only a basic human right, but also a critical factor in accelerating the achievement of sustainable development. It has been proven time and again that empowering women and girls has a multiplier effect, helping to drive economic growth and development in all areas.

Within the framework of Al-Noor University keenness to activate the role of students in establishing scientific and cultural activities, participating in them, and developing their talents in the fields of science and knowledge, a group of four female students held an open student meeting in light of the International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women, under the supervision of the Student Activities and Media Divisions and the distinguished Media Department, Marwa. Al-Jubouri is one of the college's media figures, on Thursday morning, 11/9/2023, in the conference hall at the University location in Alshalat.

Under the supervision of the Continuing Education Unit at Al-Nour University, the Law Department organized an electronic lecture on International Women's Day, delivered by Assistant Professor Dr. Saleh Hussein Ali Abdullah, teaching at the college, under the title (Iraqi Women's Rights from a Constitutional Perspective) at eight o'clock in the evening on Thursday, 3/10/ 2023
