17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

The world today is more interconnected than ever before. Improving access to technology and knowledge is a crucial way to exchange ideas and foster innovation. Additionally, coordinating policies to help developing countries manage their debts, as well as encouraging investment in the least developed countries, is vital for achieving growth and sustainable development.

College of Education

The French Cultural Institute in Nineveh hosted Professor Dr. Ghanem Saeed Hassan Al-Jalabi, a faculty member in the Department of Arabic Language at the College of Education, Alnoor University. He delivered a lecture on the influence of Arabs and Muslims in the fields of storytelling and narrative on European literature, under the title "The Influence of Ibn Tufail's Hayy Ibn Yaqzan on Daniel Defoe's Robinson Crusoe." This dialogue-based event was conducted in both inperson and online formats, with the participation of Professor Dr. Mohammed Zuhair Zaidan, a faculty member at Alnoor University, who undertook the presentation and management of the segment dedicated to the French language.
