

Sustainable Development Goals

Gender Equality

5 GENDER
EQUALITY

Eliminating all forms of discrimination against women and girls is not only a fundamental human right but also a crucial factor in accelerating sustainable development. It has been repeatedly proven that empowering women and girls has a multiplier effect, helping to drive economic growth and development across all areas.

Gender Equality

College of Law

In the presence of Professor Dr. Yaseen Taha Al-Hajjar, President of Alnoor University, and as part of the university's continuous education program, the Human Rights Division of the College of Law, in collaboration with the Continues Education Unit of the college, organized a seminar titled "Administrative Contracts and Their Impact on Employees' Rights." The seminar was supervised by Assistant Lecturer Qaidar Ahmed Mahmoud and included two lectures. The first lecture, "Administrative Contracts in Iraqi Law," was delivered by Dr. Hossam Mohsen, a faculty member of the college. The second lecture, "The Impact of Administrative Contracts on Employees' Rights," was presented by Assistant Lecturer Qaidar Ahmed Mahmoud. Also in attendance was Professor Dr. Khazal Fathi Zidan, Dean of the College of Education at the university.

