

Sustainable Development Goals

Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions

16 PEACE, JUSTICE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS

Encouraging the establishment of peaceful communities where no one is marginalized is essential for achieving sustainable development. This involves ensuring that everyone has access to justice, building effective and accountable institutions that are inclusive at all levels, and significantly reducing illicit flows of money and weapons. Additionally, it includes enhancing the recovery and return of stolen assets and combating all forms of organized crime..

College of Law

The College of Law at Alnoor University held a seminar titled "Perspectives on International Commercial Arbitration." The seminar was supervised by Dr. Mohammed Saeed Al-Raho, a faculty member at the college, and featured lectures by Dr. Nashwan Mohammed Suleiman and Dr. Rana Saad Shaker.

