17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

The world today is more interconnected than ever before. Improving access to technology and knowledge is a crucial way to exchange ideas and foster innovation. Additionally, coordinating policies to help developing countries manage their debts, as well as encouraging investment in the least developed countries, is vital for achieving growth and sustainable development.

College of Pharmacy

As part of the dynamic and creative communication between the Colleges of Pharmacy in the universities of Nineveh Province, Dr. Omar Badr Al-Din Al-Layla, Dean of the College of Pharmacy at Alnoor University, organized a visit to the Dean's Office of the College of Pharmacy at the University of Mosul. During the visit, he met with the new Dean, Professor Dr. Yasser Fakhri, to congratulate him on his appointment as Dean of the College of Pharmacy at the University of Mosul. Dr. Al-Layla presented him with a shield on behalf of Alnoor University, along with a bouquet of flowers. The visit coincided with the presence of Professor Dr. Maisar Al-Qutaji, Dean of the College of Pharmacy at the University of Nineveh, who was also there to congratulate Professor Dr. Yasser Fakhri. The meeting was attended by the assistant deans of the Colleges of Pharmacy from Alnoor University, the University of Nineveh, and the University of Mosul. This gathering contributes to strengthening communication, reinforcing relations, and maintaining ties among higher education institutions specializing in similar fields across the universities of Nineveh Province.
