17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

The world today is more interconnected than ever before. Improving access to technology and knowledge is a crucial way to exchange ideas and foster innovation. Additionally, coordinating policies to help developing countries manage their debts, as well as encouraging investment in the least developed countries, is vital for achieving growth and sustainable development.

Partnerships For The Goals

In celebration of the 58th anniversary of the founding of the University of Mosul, Professor Dr. Yaseen Taha Al-Hajjar, President of Alnoor University, and Dr. Bashar Mahmoud Ali, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Alnoor University, participated in the central ceremony organized by the University of Mosul. During the ceremony, Alnoor University presented a bouquet of flowers as a gesture of congratulations and appreciation to the University of Mosul, which was received by Professor Dr. Waheed Al-Ibrahimi, President of the University of Mosul. This was a symbol of the deep academic and professional relationship between the two institutions. Through this participation, Alnoor University affirms its pride in the University of Mosul, this prestigious scientific institution, and congratulates all its faculty members and students on the occasion of its 58th anniversary. The university extends its best wishes for continued progress and prosperity in serving science and society.
