17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

The world today is more interconnected than ever before. Improving access to technology and knowledge is a crucial way to exchange ideas and foster innovation. Additionally, coordinating policies to help developing countries manage their debts, as well as encouraging investment in the least developed countries, is vital for achieving growth and sustainable development.

Partnerships For The Goals

Al-Noor University signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the General Directorate of Education in Nineveh, in the presence of a number of academic and educational figures. This step aims to strengthen scientific and educational cooperation and support the educational process in Nineveh Governorate. The MoU was signed on behalf of Al-Noor University by Prof. Dr. Yaseen Taha Al-Hajjar, President of the University, and on behalf of the Directorate of Education by Mr. Mohammed Ibrahim Abboudi, Director General of Nineveh Education.

The memorandum includes several clauses aimed at serving the public interest and enhancing the quality of education. Key points include:

- Organizing joint educational and academic activities
- Holding specialized educational conferences
- Implementing training programs and workshops for the educational staff
- Supporting scouting camps and student activities
- Collaborating in creative arts
- Exchanging academic and scientific expertise between the two sides
- Promoting joint research efforts and publication of collaborative studies by academic professionals

Both parties emphasized the significance of this collaboration in establishing a strong partnership between higher education institutions and educational organizations, contributing to the development of an enlightened scientific generation capable of advancing society and fulfilling its future aspirations.
