17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

The world today is more interconnected than ever before. Improving access to technology and knowledge is a crucial way to exchange ideas and foster innovation. Additionally, coordinating policies to help developing countries manage their debts, as well as encouraging investment in the least developed countries, is vital for achieving growth and sustainable development.

Partnerships For The Goals

Al-Noor University welcomed Dr. Khaled Al-Obaidi, a member of the Iraqi Council of Representatives. He was received by Dr. Bashar Mahmoud Ali, Chairman of the University's Board of Trustees. During his visit, Dr. Al-Obaidi toured several academic and administrative facilities and received a detailed briefing on the university's vision and its plans to enhance the educational environment and campus infrastructure. At the conclusion of his visit, Dr. Al-Obaidi appeared as a guest on the university's affiliated radio program, Al-Multaqa Ma'a Jarir (The Forum with Jarir), broadcast on Al-Noor Radio. The interview covered highlights of his personal and professional journey, as well as general issues related to the nation, society, and youth. This visit reflects the ongoing engagement between national figures and academic institutions and underscores Al-Noor University's commitment to opening its doors to national talents who support Iraq's educational development.
