

Sustainable Development Goals

Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions

16 PEACE, JUSTICE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS

Encouraging the establishment of peaceful communities where no one is marginalized is essential for achieving sustainable development. This involves ensuring that everyone has access to justice, building effective and accountable institutions that are inclusive at all levels, and significantly reducing illicit flows of money and weapons. Additionally, it includes enhancing the recovery and return of stolen assets and combating all forms of organized crime..

College of Law

Assistant Professor Dr. Ahmed Mustafa Ali, Dean of the College of Law at Al-Noor University, participated as a member of the examination committee for the master's thesis of student Rayhan Hanna Ayoub Shukr, submitted to the College of Law at Al-Mustansiriya University. The thesis was entitled "The International Legal System of Transitional Justice in Victim Compensation."

