4 QUALITY EDUCATION

Access to education can enhance quality of life and prepare future leaders who will find solutions to global challenges. Providing education to children in technical, vocational, and entrepreneurial skills will serve as a foundation for sustainable development through scholarships and educational facilities, as well as eliminating gender disparities in access to education.

College of Pharmacy

A delegation from the College of Pharmacy at Al-Noor University participated in the proceedings of the First International Conference of Pharmacists in Najaf Al-Ashraf, which was attended by the Governor of Najaf, the Chairman of the Provincial Council, several members of parliament, and the President of the Pharmacists Syndicate of Iraq in Najaf. During the conference, Dr. Omar Qutaiba Badr Al-Din Al-Layla, Dean of the College of Pharmacy at Al-Noor University, delivered a lecture titled:

"From Medication Experts to Healthcare Leaders: Expanding Pharmacists' Roles"
The lecture addressed the future services pharmacists are expected to provide and was attended by more than 500 pharmacists from Najaf.

Following the lecture, a workshop was presented under the title:

"Smart Sampling: Enhancing Validity in Pharmaceutical Studies"
This workshop proved especially valuable for pharmacist researchers.

At the conclusion of the conference, Dr. Omar Al-Layla was honored with the conference shield.

The Al-Noor University delegation also included: Dr. Bahjat Saeed Issa, Assistant Dean for Administrative Affairs, Dr. Ahmed Faisal, Faculty Representative and Assistant Lecturer Fares Anad, Secretary of the College Council.

The slide features a large portrait of Dr. Omar Al-Layla on the left. To the right, under the heading "Recommendations", is a list of seven points. The bottom of the slide includes social media icons, the website URL, and a contact number.
