

Sustainable Development Goals

Partnerships For The Goals

17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

The world today is more interconnected than ever before. Improving access to technology and knowledge is a crucial way to exchange ideas and foster innovation. Additionally, coordinating policies to help developing countries manage their debts, as well as encouraging investment in the least developed countries, is vital for achieving growth and sustainable development.

Partnerships For The Goals

The First Justice Forum was launched in Mosul, organized by the Presidency of the Nineveh Federal Court of Appeal, and held at the University of Mosul Theater. The event witnessed distinguished attendance from judges, academic professors, college deans, and experts in the legal and technological fields. Alnoor University participated in the event as one of the official sponsors, in support of the message of justice and as part of its societal and academic role in building strong institutions that contribute to legal and administrative development in Nineveh Governorate. The forum included specialized academic lectures that addressed leadership and development and their role in promoting justice, as well as lectures on cybersecurity and information security. A legal seminar was also held to discuss the latest developments and challenges facing the Iraqi judiciary amid digital and legislative transformations. Through its participation, Alnoor University reaffirms its ongoing commitment to institutional partnership between higher education and the judiciary, in support of reform efforts, the promotion of legal culture, and the building of a society founded on fairness and knowledge.

