17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

The world today is more interconnected than ever before. Improving access to technology and knowledge is a crucial way to exchange ideas and foster innovation. Additionally, coordinating policies to help developing countries manage their debts, as well as encouraging investment in the least developed countries, is vital for achieving growth and sustainable development.

Partnerships For The Goals

As part of Alnoor University's commitment to community service and its engagement with initiatives aimed at preserving cultural heritage, a scientific and academic memorandum of understanding was signed today between Alnoor University and the Lamassu Cultural Organization, under which the Lamassu Organization was designated as the archaeological representative of Alnoor University. The memorandum was signed by Prof. Ismail Abdul Wahab, Assistant President of the University for Scientific Affairs, on behalf of Alnoor University, and Dr. Omar Jassam, President of the Lamassu Cultural Organization. The signing ceremony was attended by Asst. Prof. Dr. Mohammed Zuheir, Director of Cultural Relations at Alnoor University, Dr. Hind Fakhri, Advisor to the Lamassu Organization, and several members of the organization. The memorandum includes several provisions governing the joint work of the two parties in the fields of archaeology, cultural heritage preservation, training and capacity building, scientific research, and field archaeological excavations.
