17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

The world today is more interconnected than ever before. Improving access to technology and knowledge is a crucial way to exchange ideas and foster innovation. Additionally, coordinating policies to help developing countries manage their debts, as well as encouraging investment in the least developed countries, is vital for achieving growth and sustainable development.

Partnerships For The Goals

The Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Alnoor University, Dr. Bashar Mahmoud Ali, received the founding team of the Programmers' Syndicate in Nineveh, represented by Mr. Saad Al-Wazzan. During the meeting, the two sides discussed prospects for joint cooperation between the University and the Syndicate, particularly in strengthening the Syndicate's presence within the private sector. They also addressed common areas that contribute to developing this vital field and supporting programmers in ways that serve both the labor market and the community. The delegation also conducted a field tour of the University, visiting several classrooms and scientific laboratories, where they were briefed on the available facilities and the ongoing efforts to provide a modern educational environment that keeps pace with the needs of the labor market.
