17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

The world today is more interconnected than ever before. Improving access to technology and knowledge is a crucial way to exchange ideas and foster innovation. Additionally, coordinating policies to help developing countries manage their debts, as well as encouraging investment in the least developed countries, is vital for achieving growth and sustainable development.

A delegation from Alnoor University conducted a visit to the Institut du Monde Arabe (Arab World Institute) in the French capital, Paris. The delegation discussed ways to enhance academic and cultural cooperation with the Institute's Director, the esteemed Professor Shawqi Abdul Amir Al-Hamadani. Al-Hamadani praised the university's role and its specialized center for the preservation of cultural heritage, considering Iraq's leadership of the Institute a historic opportunity to develop academic and cultural partnerships on an international level. He also called for launching joint programs and projects that would contribute to serving Iraqi society and enhancing its civilizational status globally. Furthermore, Al-Hamadani announced his intention to visit the city of Mosul and Alnoor University soon, in addition to the Institut du Monde Arabe's participation in the International Conference on Archaeological Tourism.

The Alnoor University delegation participating in the meeting included:

- Professor Dr. Ismail Abdulwahab Ismail, Assistant University President for Scientific Affairs
- Dr. Mohammed Zuhair Zaidan, Director of International Relations
- Dr. Nabil Noor Al-Deen Hussein, Director of the Alnoor Center for Cultural Heritage Preservation
