17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

The world today is more interconnected than ever before. Improving access to technology and knowledge is a crucial way to exchange ideas and foster innovation. Additionally, coordinating policies to help developing countries manage their debts, as well as encouraging investment in the least developed countries, is vital for achieving growth and sustainable development.

Within the framework of mutual cooperation between Alnoor University and the Mosul Chamber of Commerce, Dr. Bashar Mahmoud Ali visited the Chamber, where he was received by Mr. Muqbil Al-Dabbagh, President of the Mosul Chamber of Commerce. During the visit, Dr. Bashar was briefed on the Chamber's new building and its halls prepared for hosting economic and academic events. As part of the tour, he visited the hall named after the late Mohammed Najib Al-Jader, founder of the Mosul Chamber of Commerce, which was dedicated in his memory and his role in serving the city's commercial movement. Dr. Bashar was accompanied by Dr. Diaa Al-Jader, Director of Legal Affairs at Alnoor University. The visit concluded with an agreement to hold a joint conference between the University and the Chamber aimed at strengthening and revitalizing commercial activity in Mosul, and opening broader avenues of cooperation between the two institutions in service of the local community.
