17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

The world today is more interconnected than ever before. Improving access to technology and knowledge is a crucial way to exchange ideas and foster innovation. Additionally, coordinating policies to help developing countries manage their debts, as well as encouraging investment in the least developed countries, is vital for achieving growth and sustainable development.

On the sidelines of the activities of the First Iraqi Conference on Clinical Pharmacy (1st ICCP), the President of the Iraqi Pharmacists Syndicate, Dr. Haider Fuad Al-Sayegh, accompanied by the President of Alnoor University, Professor Dr. Yassin Taha Al-Hajjar, the Chairman of the University's Board of Trustees, Dr. Bashar Mahmood Ali, and the Dean of the College of Pharmacy, Assistant Professor Dr. Omar Qutaiba Al-Layla, conducted a tour of several university facilities and classrooms within the College of Pharmacy. The tour included the opening of a charity bazaar to support thalassemia patients, organized in collaboration with Al-Hadbaa Specialized Hospital and the Student Activities Department at Alnoor University, as part of the university's ongoing humanitarian and social initiatives. During his visit, Dr. Al-Sayegh commended Alnoor University for the advanced level it has achieved in its academic environment and administrative organization, affirming the support of the Iraqi Pharmacists Syndicate for the university's mission and its efforts to enhance pharmaceutical education and improve academic outcomes in line with standards of quality and excellence.
