17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

The world today is more interconnected than ever before. Improving access to technology and knowledge is a crucial way to exchange ideas and foster innovation. Additionally, coordinating policies to help developing countries manage their debts, as well as encouraging investment in the least developed countries, is vital for achieving growth and sustainable development.

Partnerships For The Goals

In a significant step toward strengthening the partnership between Alnoor University and its Center for the Preservation of Cultural Heritage (Alnoor Cultural Heritage Digitization Team) with Brandenburg University in Germany, the center's website has been officially listed on the DAAD project portal, which features several global initiatives dedicated to the digitization of world heritage. This recognition highlights the center's pioneering role in documenting and preserving Iraqi heritage through the use of modern digital technologies integrated with fine arts. The AI Art Gallery exhibition, organized by the Iraqi Cultural Heritage Digitization Team at the University of Potsdam in September, was the first of its kind worldwide. This participation marks a new milestone toward internationalization, reinforcing Alnoor University's and its Center's position on the global academic stage and embodying Iraq's mission to promote knowledge and safeguard the cultural and human heritage.
