11 SUSTAINABLE CITIES AND COMMUNITIES

Cities are hubs for ideas, trade, culture, science, production, social development, and other human activities. They play a crucial role in enabling people to achieve social and economic advancement. It is essential to mobilize support to ensure that policymakers are convinced of the need to include access to information in national and regional development plans.

As part of Alnoor University's efforts to strengthen scientific research and preserve cultural heritage, the university held an extensive meeting attended by Professor Dr. Ismail Abdulwahab, Assistant President of the University for Scientific Affairs, and the staff of the Alnoor Center for the Preservation of Cultural Heritage, headed by Dr. Nabil Nour Al-Din Hussein. The meeting, held at the center's headquarters in the Old City, was also attended by Professor Dr. Ahmed Qasim Al-Jumaa, Professor Dr. Wael Al-Nahas, Professor Dr. Shalaan Kamel, Assistant Professor Dr. Mohammed Zuhair Zidan, and Dr. Jasim Mohammed Mahmoud. The participants discussed the center's future work plan and ways to develop its activities in the field of preserving and documenting Iraqi cultural heritage, in addition to organizing relevant conferences and scientific seminars. The meeting also explored the possibility of establishing research partnerships with universities and cultural centers inside and outside Iraq, and providing a suitable scientific and administrative environment to ensure the success of the center's research projects. The Assistant President for Scientific Affairs emphasized that Alnoor University pays special attention to institutions dedicated to national heritage and culture, noting that the center represents a qualitative step toward realizing the university's vision, which aims to combine authenticity with contemporary knowledge.
