

Sustainable Development Goals

Partnerships For The Goals

17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

The world today is more interconnected than ever before. Improving access to technology and knowledge is a crucial way to exchange ideas and foster innovation. Additionally, coordinating policies to help developing countries manage their debts, as well as encouraging investment in the least developed countries, is vital for achieving growth and sustainable development.

Sustainable Development Goals

Partnerships For The Goals

Within the framework of strengthening academic cooperation and exchanging expertise among educational institutions, Alnoor University received a scientific delegation from the Department of English at the College of Arts, University of Mosul, on a visit aimed at exploring the university environment and available academic services and discussing prospects for joint cooperation. The visiting delegation included the Head of the Department of English, Assistant Professor Dr. Marwan Najib Tawfiq, a number of faculty members, and a group of male and female students, reflecting the department's interest in expanding students' practical experience and linking theoretical knowledge with modern academic practices. The delegation was received by the Assistant President of Alnoor University for Scientific Affairs, Professor Dr. Ismail Abdulwahab, and the Head of the Department of English at the College of Education, Alnoor University, Professor Dr. Shoaib Al-Fahadi, who welcomed the guests and emphasized the importance of scientific visits in enhancing communication between counterpart departments and exchanging experiences in support of educational development. The visit program included a field tour of several university facilities, as well as a visit to the university library to review its resources and academic services, contributing to familiarizing students and academic staff with the educational and research facilities available at the university.

