11 SUSTAINABLE CITIES AND COMMUNITIES

Cities are hubs for ideas, trade, culture, science, production, social development, and other human activities. They play a crucial role in enabling people to achieve social and economic advancement. It is essential to mobilize support to ensure that policymakers are convinced of the need to include access to information in national and regional development plans.

College of Education

As part of its ongoing cultural program, the Department of Arabic Language at the College of Education, Alnoor University, hosted the prominent Iraqi poet Dr. Walid Al-Sarraf in a distinguished cultural literary morning. The event was attended by Dr. Bashar Mahmoud, Chairman of the University Board of Trustees, Professor Dr. Ismail Abdulwahab, Scientific Assistant to the University President, and Professor Dr. Khazal Fathi Zaidan, Dean of the College of Education, in addition to a notable presence of faculty members and students of the department. The guest poet was introduced by Zaid Saleh, Assistant Lecturer in the department, who welcomed him and highlighted aspects of his poetic experience and literary career. During the session, Dr. Al-Sarraf recited a selected collection of his poems that reflected the diversity of his styles and the depth of his poetic vision, earning great admiration and interaction from the audience. An open dialogue on poetry, its techniques, and contemporary innovations further enriched the meeting, adding a valuable intellectual and cultural dimension. This hosting comes within the framework of the department's commitment to promoting cultural engagement and creating spaces for creativity and literary dialogue within the university.
