11 SUSTAINABLE CITIES AND COMMUNITIES

Cities are hubs for ideas, trade, culture, science, production, social development, and other human activities. They play a crucial role in enabling people to achieve social and economic advancement. It is essential to mobilize support to ensure that policymakers are convinced of the need to include access to information in national and regional development plans.

College of Education

The Department of Arabic Language at the College of Education, Alnoor University, organized a specialized scientific workshop entitled “Culture and Society,” supervised and delivered by Assistant Professor Dr. Jassim Khalaf Al-Ilyas and Assistant Lecturer Ahd Talal Al-Khalidi, both faculty members of the department. The workshop presented a brief overview of the concept of culture and its relationship with society, highlighting the impact of culture on building communities and its role in shaping collective awareness, as well as explaining the functions of culture and its importance in promoting social values and regulating human behavior. The workshop witnessed active interaction from attendees and was enriched with scholarly discussions and interventions that contributed to deepening understanding of the topics addressed.
