17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

The world today is more interconnected than ever before. Improving access to technology and knowledge is a crucial way to exchange ideas and foster innovation. Additionally, coordinating policies to help developing countries manage their debts, as well as encouraging investment in the least developed countries, is vital for achieving growth and sustainable development.

Partnerships For The Goals

Mr. Khalid Abdul Karim Al-Obaidi, Technical Deputy Governor of Nineveh, visited Alnoor University, where he met with Professor Dr. Yassin Taha Al-Hajjar, the University President. The meeting included a discussion on the current status of the university and prospects for its development, attended by the Assistant President for Scientific Affairs and the Scientific Advisor. The participants emphasized the importance of supporting the educational process and enhancing the research environment. In a related context, media presenter Farqad Malko conducted an in-depth interview lasting a full hour with Mr. Al-Obaidi on Alnoor FM Radio as part of her weekly program “Noor Al-Farqad,” addressing key issues related to the situation in Nineveh Governorate and the role of educational institutions in supporting development.
