17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

The world today is more interconnected than ever before. Improving access to technology and knowledge is a crucial way to exchange ideas and foster innovation. Additionally, coordinating policies to help developing countries manage their debts, as well as encouraging investment in the least developed countries, is vital for achieving growth and sustainable development.

Partnerships For The Goals

Alnoor University participated in the technical meeting for the short film competition, hosted by Kirkuk University, with the participation of representatives from more than 50 Iraqi universities. The meeting discussed the organizational aspects of the competition, including participation mechanisms, evaluation regulations, and approved technical standards to ensure the production of outstanding cinematic works that reflect students' creativity and capabilities in filmmaking. At the conclusion of the meeting, Alnoor University was awarded the hosting shield, which was received by Assistant Professor Dr. Nadhir Abdulghani Al-Azzawi, a faculty member at the College of Applied Arts at Alnoor University, in recognition of the university's prominent role in supporting artistic activities and its effective contribution to the success of university events.
