

Sustainable Development Goals

Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions

16 PEACE, JUSTICE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS

Encouraging the establishment of peaceful communities where no one is marginalized is essential for achieving sustainable development. This involves ensuring that everyone has access to justice, building effective and accountable institutions that are inclusive at all levels, and significantly reducing illicit flows of money and weapons. Additionally, it includes enhancing the recovery and return of stolen assets and combating all forms of organized crime..

College of Education

In the presence of Professor Dr. Khazal Fathi Zidan, Dean of the College of Education at Alnoor University, the Department of English organized a scientific workshop entitled “Words as Weapons: Analyzing Threats and Cyber Extortion in the Digital Age.” The workshop was supervised and delivered by Assistant Lecturer Abeer Abdul Qader Ahmed, who discussed the importance of language as a tool that may be used negatively in digital spaces, highlighting methods of online threats and cyber extortion, as well as approaches to analyzing the discourse used in such crimes, in addition to outlining ways of awareness and prevention. The workshop also witnessed active engagement from attendees through questions and discussions that enriched the dialogue and deepened understanding of this vital topic.

